

Privacy Policy

1. Who We Are

The owner of the website and products is Igor Novozenko, an entrepreneur registered in Poland under NIP: 8992914551.

Contact address: bro@table-bro.com.

We act as the data controller in accordance with the GDPR.

2. Data We Collect

- Customer email — the license is issued to it; used for communication, license delivery, support and license management.
- Purchase number — a random identifier of each license; it is included in the delivered package.
- Registry access tokens — stored only as SHA-256 hashes; the tokens themselves are not stored.
- Registry request log — for each installation of a paid module from npm.table-bro.com: license, token name, package and version, time, country and network organization of the request, and the user agent of the installing tool. The IP address is not stored.

3. Payment Data

- All payments are processed through the Stripe service.
- We do not collect, transfer, or store your payment data (such as credit card details).
- All payment data is provided directly by the customer to Stripe in accordance with their privacy policy: <https://stripe.com/privacy>.

4. How We Use Data

- Email — for communication with the customer, license delivery, support and license management.
- Purchase number and registry request log — for verification of correct license usage (one license per product), detection of leaked tokens and packages, and support.

5. Storage and Security

We take measures to protect the data we collect (email, purchase numbers, token hashes, request log). The data is stored with our hosting providers, Cloudflare and Neon.

The request log is kept for 12 months.

Payment data is fully processed by Stripe.

6. User Rights (GDPR)

You have the right to:

- request a copy of your data,
- correct or delete your data,
- withdraw consent to data processing.

To exercise these rights, please contact us at bro@table-bro.com.

7. Governing Law

All data processing activities are governed by the GDPR and the laws of Poland.
